QUIPP PACKMAN

The Quipp PACKMAN Packaging System attracted the attention of many existing Quipp customers and potential new customers.

Since the introduction of the Quipp PACKMAN, several newspapers have purchased this compact machine to increase the productivity of their stacking, wrapping, and strapping operations.

The Quipp booth also showcased the Quipp Model 500 Stacker, the Quipp Viper $\frac{3}{4}$ Wrapper and the Quipp Off-Press Counter Stacker.

Quipp has sold over 3,300 stackers & 2,100 wrappers since 1983.

Another great benefit that Quipp offers to its customers is customized 3D renderings and simulations to help them make important operational decisions.

Next time you plan to upgrade your distribution center, make sure to contact Quipp so we can offer you a complete line of post-press equipment & over 20 years of reliable equipment, exceptional customer service and experience.

We look forward to working with you in your future needs.
